

Ryan's Lounge

Happily ever après

❖ If you were meant to ski first tracks at Tremblant, then why are there so many late-night shows, bars, concerts and events going on? Après-ski options are a top reason this overly social resort is continually ranked first in the East by visitors like those from the U.S. Just the lineup of outdoor concerts for the 24 Hours of Skiing fundraiser in December was impressive, not to mention the year-round parties and festivals all over town.

Make the most of your time in Tremblant:

- Soup or stew in a bread bowl at La Forge, right at the base of the gondola.
- Fairmont Tremblant's plush Nansen Lounge is ideal for an adult coffee or flavoured martini.
- Head farther down to Ô Wok for Thai cuisine.
- The rustic and modern decor of Ryan's Lounge attracts the over-25 crowd with its laid-back atmosphere.
- Right next door is the legendary P'tit Caribou Bar, where there's plenty of beautiful people with all the right dance moves.
- Microbrasserie de la Diable makes its own brew on-site and its signature schnitzel.
- The Q Wine Bar is a memorable place to warm up by the fire with someone special.
- If you skied down the Versant Soleil for last run, you're not stranded; Casino Tremblant will feed, water and warm you up—and hopefully send you back on the bus richer than you arrived.
- Everyone knows hot yoga, but how about cold yoga or Snowga? Innovative local yogis perfect stretches and summit meditations while surrounded by mountain vistas. Ommm...
