Have you ever dreamed that you could bring your board to your next board meeting?

The Tremblant team knows how challenging it can be to stimulate your troops while meeting your goals and offers turn-key packages, giving new meaning to the business or pleasure question. Why not both?

With a full service congress centre hooked up with the latest technology and many 5-star hotels on the premises with their own conference rooms, Tremblant is an obvious choice for conventions, product launches and even weddings.

Many packages will include room facilities, audio-visual rentals including teleconferencing, meals, lodging, and a few perks thrown in like lift tickets, spa treatments, wine tasting, progressive dinners, team building activities such as dog-sledding or cattle round up, even live entertainment.

While every hotel can "hold" a meeting, it takes a dedicated crew to pull it off under short deadlines while mastering all the details.

The Tremblant region can count on a host of professionals, from full-service concierges handling stage décor, ice carvers for your logo or theme, DJs, and wellness professionals who can bring a much-needed boost in any meeting. A rested mind is a productive mind, so make sure you include dings are in a class of their own in Tremblant. Many hotels, country inns and resorts offer complete packages for your guests, from the flowers to the best photographers.

The quaint St-Bernard Chapel at the base of the mountain is the perfect backdrop for a romantic country setting, and can accommodate many religions and cultural preferences in English or in French.

Your memorable photos could be taken at the top of the mountain in a gondola ride or by the lake with horse-drawn carriages if you wish.

Hotel Quintessence, a lakefront boutique-hotel even offers its own honeymoon cabin perched up on the bay, an historic log house with many stories to tell.

You can also reserve the entire 30-suite hotel with its award-winning dining room for that special event if the sky is the limit.

For both business and festive gatherings, think outside the box and watch your event soar to new heights!
